(Preface Page)

The compiling of the Love Family History has been extended over twenty-two years of intermittent inquiry and has been a very interesting labor of love, taken up, continued, and laid down with an ever-increasing appreciation of the fineness, sincerity, and integrity of the family into whose inmost privacy the search has delved.

The history began in 1918 on a sheet of wrapping paper laid out on a table on the front porch of a manse. A crude tree was sketched and, as Mr. W. C. Wilson talked about the family, names were inserted in the branches, until, in one evening, a fair start was made on the twenty-two year search for data.

After that evening Mr. Wilson's sister, Mrs. S. W. Morgan, took up the work and later, Mrs. Mary Love Walker of Madison, and Mrs. Guyte McCord of Tallahassee, and Mrs. John Love Fain of Tallahassee worked diligently to compile information, until the present voluminous, but still incomplete, tables were put together.

Mrs. R. K. Shaw, Mrs. Janie Townsend, Mrs. Rena Alford, Mr. C. Fenn Jones, Mrs. Wm. C. McCurdy, and many others have added to the accuracy and interest of the accounts contained here; and with a bit here and a bit there, there is much of interest and inspiration in these records.

TO FIND YOUR LINE

Each individual member of the family has his own number, which is first given as he or she is listed among his or her parent's issue. If he or she married and had children, his or her name and number will be repeated in the next chapter, followed by a short personal history.

To look up your line find the name of any member you know, in the "Index", which will give the pages of his or her history. Finding that page you can go both forward and backward to trace the line.

For instance, -in the "Index", my husband, Herbert A. Love, is number one hundred and thirty-three, (#133), and the pages given are 32, 32A, 42, 44, 59, 63, 74, which are the ones on which his name occur. Looking them up, on page 44 I find his number in the margin, followed by his personal history. Immediately following his individual number and name is a parenthesis in which there are four names, -the first is his father, the second is his grandfather, the third is his great-grandfather, and the fourth is his great-great-grandfather who was the Alexander of the first chapter.

Each chapter represents one generation, beginning the first chapter with the Alexander who came from the Scotch part of Ireland to North Carolina. The second chapter concerns his son, Edward, with whom he migrated to Georgia, where they died. The third chapter takes up the grandchildren of Alexander, who were the children of Edward, and so on to the seventh chapter, which concerns the seventh generation of Alexander's branch of the Love family.

The first name in the parenthesis following the name of Herbert A. Love is Edward and his number is forty (#40), which will be found in the preceding chapter, Chapter Four; Edward is the father of Herbert. His grandfather's name follows in the parenthesis, Alexander whose number is eight (#8), and his personal history will be in Chapter Three. Of course all the Loves in the book are descendants of the Edward #2, and Alexander #1 of Chapter One and Two.

Following the personal history of Herbert A. Love are the names of our children, with their numbers, and looking in the chapter following, which is Chapter Six, the name of our son, his number, #295, personal history, and the name of his son will be found..

Chapter One.

Alexander Love.

This chapter is based almost entirely upon tradition - the only written record being found in the front of his Bible, which was printed in Edinburgh by Alexander Mincaid in 1769, and which is now in the possession of Mrs. S. W. Morgan, Quincy, Florida.

This is what is written:-

"Alexdr Love, His book and No other But His own, he lives on The Side of the Waters Called Drowning Creek. Three Miles above
Bettes Bridge and if Said book Be Lost and anybody find it Restore it Home To the aforesaid Alexr and you.
Shall Be rewarded according To your Trouble

To North Carolina

Bladen County.

"Edward Love

Drowning Creek."

his hand"

On another page in this same Bible is written:-
"John Love son to Edward Love, was born in the year of our Lord one thousand, seven hundred and ninety three the second day of Feb."

But there a number of well authenticated traditions about this Alexander, people now living remember what their grandparents told them of him, and upon those traditions this chapter is based.

"Bettes Bridge" is probably "Beaty's Bridge" between Laurinburg and Raeford, nine miles from Raeford, where the D. A. R. has placed a marker commemorating a Revolutionary battle.

"Love" is an English name of such ancient origin that its beginning and meaning are not certain, it is found in almost all the counties of England and is one of the oldest names in County Kent. A Love went into Scotland in 1640 and married into the McKinnon clan, and the records in Scotch books say that in 1715 and in 1745 two hundred McKinnons, on the side of Stuarts, were banished to North Carolina and Georgia, the second group being under the command of Oglethorpe. But the story handed down by word of mouth among the Gadsden County Loves is that the Scotch Loves were living in Ireland and had to flee during the persecutions and went to Holland. Mrs. S. W. Morgan has some jonquil bulbs which are said to be descendants of bulbs brought by these Loves from Holland to America.

Tradition says there were several brothers, the names of five being, Hector, Thomas, Edward, John, and Alexander. Hector, who wrote last to his family from Memphis, Tennessee, was a bootmaker, he went to Missouri about 1800 and his descendants live there. He had a stiff neck from a wound in the Revolutionary War. Alexander was the youngest and came to America last, he is the ancestor of the Gadsden County Loves. Thomas settled in Mississippi and has descendants there.

There is a Love family that traces Revolutionary descent from Amos Love, a lieutenant in the Revolutionary War. There is also a family history filed in the Library of Congress of the Loves descending from Samuel Love of Augusta County, Virginia. This Samuel had a brother, Joseph, and they were in Virginia in 1740, and tradition says they came from Ireland with William Penn to Pennsylvania. The Tinkling Springs Presbyterian Church near Lexington, Virginia, found its minute books for 1740-1777 under the floor of the home of a former clerk of Session, and Joseph and Samuel Love were mentioned as contributors. Samuel had a son, Robert, who had a cousin, William, who was in Congress from the Salisbury District, North Carolina. Robert had a son, Robert, who was a lawyer, and the founder of Waynesville, North Carolina, also a son, William, and three daughters. Peter Early Love of Thomasville, Georgia came from this line, and a summary of their family history was printed in the Atlanta Journal about thirty years ago.

In Ramser's "Annals of Tennessee" and in "The Crossing" by Winston Churchill there are references to the services of Col. Robert Love in the controversy over the abortive state of Franklin. When he founded Waynesville he named it for his revolutionary commander, Anthony Wayne; and a memorial tablet to Robert Love is back of the rostrum in the county court house. W. C. Allen said in "The Centennial History of Haywood County and its County-Seat, Waynesville" that it was almost a history of the Love family, and it has been said that there has never been a session of the North Carolina Legislature that did not have some member of the Love family.

There is also a Love line descended from James Love, who came to Wilmington from London. He had a brother William, an Episcopal clergyman, and two other brothers who followed the sea. The descendants of James live near Red Springs, Shelby, and Lincolnton, North Carolina.

In the publication, "Andrew Moore and His Descendants" there is a record of an Alexander Love and his son Alexander, but no connection can be traced to our branch of the family. That Alexander Love married Margaret Moore, daughter of Andrew Moore. They had eleven children, but their son, Alexander did not marry. This family came to Pennsylvania, through Virginia to South Carolina before the Revolutionary War, and the will of Alexander, naming his son Alexander as executor, is filed in York County, South Carolina. The Virginia records give the marriage of Alexander Love to Margaret Moore as occurring in Ireland, April 6, 1743. They lived in York County, Pennsylvania, then in Augusta County, Virginia in 1863; as did Andrew Moore (Alexander Love's father-in-law). The son Alexander, was a major in the Revolutionary Army.

In another Bible, in the possession of Mrs. S. W. Morgan is this entry;- "Euseand Love is the true owner of this Book. Edward Love is the right heir of this Bible and Hector Love, Angus Love.

the Day of Decbr. 8/78.

Hector Love is the true owner of this Book.

Edward Love is my name and with my pen I wrote the same I will be good but God knows when."

Edward was born in 1763, so he was fifteen when he wrote the above promise. From the above entry it would appear that Alexander had three sons;- the eldest, Edward, then Hector and Angus, but it is possible that Hector and Angus were brothers or other relatives who were to inherit the Bible after Edward. There are descendants of an Angus Love still living near Red Springs, North Carolina. This Angus died in 1853 and his granddaughter, Mrs. Flora McQueen, lived in Red Springs in 1915.

Tradition says Angus, John McEachin, Angus McNeill, and John McBryde were neutral during the War and hid on "McBryde Island" in Lumber River to escape service in the British Army in the Revolutionary War. The Scotch-Irish people of North Carolina were all divided on the issues of this war and families were divided, also, the usual division being that those who had been in America longest sided with the colonists and the newer ones were either Tories or neutral, with many exceptions to this rule on both sides.

Our ancestor, Alexander, being newly come to America, and having so recently signed the oath of allegiance to the British king, remained neutral in spite of his sympathy with his brother's stand, and was therefore sharply criticized by his fighting neighbors and relatives.

Family tradition says that the Alexander Love, ancestor of the Gadsden County Loves, was born in Scotland; that he married a Mary Moore (some say a McCarty), and that he had a son, Edward, and a daughter when he came to the United States, and that this daughter was drowned on the way over as she was emptying water after washing some clothes.

Mrs. Guyte McCord talked with Miss Laura McKinnon, a very old lady, who lived in Tallahassee, and she said that "a large company came over from Scotland directly to North Carolina; that Angus Finlayson chartered a boat and brought them all. He was from the Isle of Skye but the Loves and McKinnons, who were intermarried, were Highland Scotch". The Gaelic language was spoken by the Loves who came to Florida in 1822-24, having been taught to them by their grandfather, this Alexander Love, who spoke only Gaelic. This would indicate that he made a direct immigration to North Carolina, and that not long before the Revolutionary War; and those of the family who can remember talking with the original Gadsden County Loves say that Alexander came south because of his unpopularity after the War- he having steadfastly kept his oath of allegiance to the king, while his older brothers, who came to America earlier, fought on the side of the colonists. Thinking to come to Florida, then not a part of the colonies, he and his son, Edward, and Edward's children started south, stopping in Georgia, the last and longest stop being in Telfair County, where he and Edward and Edward's third wife died and are buried. There is a Love's Ferry in Montgomery County, Georgia on the Ocklawaha River near Lumber City (it is now called Burkett's Ferry), and in an old cemetery, called Powell's Cemetery, about a mile and a half from the ferry, are some very old graves which have hand-hewn stones marked with initials only - many with "S" and one has "E. L." An old gentleman living near there said the "S" was for a family of "Smiths"- one of whom, Archibald, had married an Edward Love's daughter; Jane (Jean).

In 1790 "Heads of Families in North Carolina" there is listed an Alexander Love in Fayette District, Robeson County and the record gives his family as:- "Two males over 16, two males under 16, one female". So far this has not been proven to be our first Alexander, since the Alexander of this book lived in Bladen County, (Anson County was erected from Bladen in 1749), and he came direct to Georgia with a group of Scotch-Irish pioneers, - McKinnon, McRae, Curry, Campbell, Smith, Finlayson, McMillan, McLauchlin, McArthur, etc, who all came together and intermarried.

General Thos. Robeson entered 100 acres of land in 1754, then Alexander Love entered 40 acres adjoining in 1789 and Edward Love entered 100 acres June 13th, 1797.

Since the first wife of Edward Love is known to have died in North Carolina between 1800 and 1803 and since John Love, son of Edward, drew land in the Georgia Land Lottery in 1808, it is fair to assume that their migration occurred between 1803 and 1808, possibly after his second wife died in 1807, but maybe earlier in that period.

Chapter Two.

Second Generation.

Edward.

The son of Alexander, Edward, was born July 20th, 1765, probably the eldest son, since the family Bible was claimed by him, but possibly not, for the entry may have been made after they left North Carolina and Edward was the only son who migrated south with his father. This is scarcely possible because the entry was made in 1778 and Edward entered land in 1797- in North Carolina.

Edward married first, Elizabeth Curry, and they had four children:- John, Donald, called Daniel, Jean called Jane, and Alexander called Sandy. Elizabeth Curry Love died in Wayne County, North Carolina, (of which Goldsboro is the county seat now). She died either when Alexander was born or soon afterward for Edward married, second, on March 9, 1803, Margaret Campbell, and they had three children:- Mary, who died unmarried, Elizabeth, and Archibald.

Margaret Campbell Love died between 1807 and 1810 and Edward married third, a Miss Fletcher. They had two children, Hector and Flora Ann, who both died in childhood, and after they died, Edward and his wife took two of her kinpeople, Mary and Joseph Fletcher, to raise.

Edward was a widower twice while his children were young and their care fell to the grandfather, Alexander, (a widower, too, no doubt), and since he spoke only Gaelic, the family used that language too, and the children did not speak English until they were some years old.

In the Warren County, Georgia records of 1810, John Love of the county of Hancock sells lots #335 in the 7th District of Wilkinson County- 202 acres of said tract being drawn by John Love in the Georgia Land Lottery and being granted to him on July 15, 1808. In the Georgia Land Lottery, a man could draw twice if he or his family had served in the Revolutionary Army and John drew only one lot.

Feb. 9, 1829 John C. Love of the Territory of Florida deeded to Elias Hinson of Telfair County, Georgia for $500.00, land on the Ocmulgee River in 7th District of (originally Wilkinson) now Telfair County, 217 acres and another tract of 96 acres, containing houses and improvements, ferry and ferry floats in (Telfair originally) now Appling County. This was recorded May 9, 1829. John was thirty-six years old and his grandfather and father were dead and all his brothers and sisters had moved to Gadsden County, Florida. This sale was probably made to settle the estate when the third Mrs. Edward Love died. She had refused to move to Florida with her step-children, and, when she died, her stepsons, Alexander and Donald, went back to Georgia to settle the estate. Upon their return her foster-son, Joseph Fletcher, wanted to accompany them, but they refused, telling him he must remain with Fletcher kinpeople. They started home and at the end of the day's journey, when they stopped to camp for the night, Joseph came in, he had followed them at a safe distance all through the day and there was nothing to do but bring him on to Florida, and the Fletchers who live around Chattahoochee are his descendants.

In the Bible containing the record:- "Alexander Love is the true Owner of the Book, Edward Love is the right heir of this Bible, and Hector Love, Angus Love, the Day of Decbr 8/78 Hector Love is the true owner of this Book. Edward Love is my name and with my pen I wrote the same. I will be good but God knows when," there is also on a fly leaf a recipe:- "A handfull of Tanzah, a handfull of horehound, a handfull of Rue, a handfull of Black Snake root, a handfull of Star-grass root, a handfull of Hart Leaves, a handfull of wormwood and as much smith sinders as will make a pond all dried and ground it into Powder then take as much as you'll take upon the point of a case knife. Every Morning with a Spoonfull of Runney.

"Finis to the Doctrine."

Mrs. S. W. Morgan has, also, a Bible printed in Gaelic, of which the following is a specimen:-

"An Soisgeul a reir Khata.

Third Generation.

5. John (Edward 2, Alexander 1) was born Feb. 2, 1793, probably in North Carolina. The family decided, since money was scarce, they would send the eldest son, John (5), back to Scotland, to the Loves in Edinburgh, for an education and that upon his return, he could tutor the younger children; but when he returned he became a surveyor and was away from home most of the time. After Florida was transferred from Spain to the United States John was employed to survey the northern state line of Florida, and the work was so well done that there has never been a dispute over it. His sister, Jean Love Smith(7), moved to Florida about this time, but the rest of his family still lived in Felfair County, Georgia. John (5) became official surveyor for Gadsden County and helped to locate the capital in Tallahassee. Gadsden County was established June 24, 1825 and included all the land from the Suwannee River to the Apalachicola River and maybe some of the land on the west bank of that river. It was named for James Gadsden who came as a young lieutenant with Gen. Andrew Jackson in 1818 in the campaign against the Seminole Indians. James Gadsden later, in 1855, negotiated the Gadsden Purchase.

Mr. Cash in "The Story of Florida" says that Gadsden County was noted for its educational advantages; the Academy in 1822 being about equal to our present High School and by 1850 there were three academics in the county, with nine teachers and one hundred and eighty Gadsden County pupils, besides many who came from other places and boarded in the homes of the county.

The village of Quincy was laid out - as the county-seat - in 1825; and tobacco, as a money crop, began to be raised in 1828.

John (5) is listed on the first several lists of registered voters in Gadsden County, one of which contained about two hundred names and began as follows:- "At an election held in Quincy in the County of Gadsden, on the third day of February 1834, for the Clerk of the County Court, Sheriff, Coroner, and County Surveyor, the following persons voted:-" and among those who voted are Jason Gregory, Jason Gregory, Jr., Daniel Shaw, John Shaw, Arch. Love, Arch. Smith, Jr., Daniel Love, Arch. Buie, David Holloman, P. H. Wooten, John Wilson, Collin Wooten, Alex. Love, John C. Love. Thos. J. Keenan was elected Clerk of County Court, Robert Forbes was elected Sheriff by 5 votes majority, Owen Pittman was elected Coroner by 102 votes, and John C. Love (5) was elected Surveyor by 136 votes. John C. Love (5) was also Sheriff at one time and his name appears often in the records at the Gadsden County Court House. He was one of the first elders of the Quincy Presbyterian Church.

John (5) married Lurana Wooten April 24, 1827. She was born Sept. 7, 1807 and died Sept. 7, 1873. Their home was about two miles west of Quincy and they are buried in that plantation cemetery. John (5) died Aug. 30, 1864.

6. Donald (called Daniel) (Edward A. Alexander 1) was born August 22, 1794, probably in North Carolina. He married first, Flora Graham who was born June 11, 1799, the daughter of Daniel and Mary Graham), in Telfair County, Georgia, November 16, 1819. They had no children and she died Oct. 20, 1820.

After he moved to Gadsden County, Florida, he married, second, Ann (called Nancy) Buic, May 20, 1824. Daniel Love was one of the charter members and an active elder in the Quincy Presbyterian Church and is often mentioned in the minutes of its Session as doing some worthwhile work in connection with that office. In one of the diaries of Dr. J. M. W. Davidson (1860) a full account is given of one of their trips to conduct Prayer Meeting in the Smyrna Church, near River Junction. Dr. Davidson and Daniel Love went in Daniel Love's buggy, taking a day to go and another day to return, paying elder-calls along the way, reading the Scripture and leading in prayer in the several homes.

Martha, slave of Daniel Love, was one of the few negro members of the Quincy Presbyterian Church, and her birth, March 9, 1835, and also her marriage and children's ages are recorded in his record book.

Barbara Ann Buic Love (called Nancy) was born July 1, 1802 and died August 2, 1884. There is an interesting story about her nickname, "Seed Cane". Daniel made a trip across the county to the Buic home and when asked about it, said he had heard they had some fine seed cane there, so afterward as his trips became more frequent, he was often teased about going so often to get seed cane, and after he married her he often called her "Seed Cane".

Daniel Love died March 12, 1863.

Will of Daniel Love

State of Florida

Gadsden County. Know all men by these presents that I, Daniel Love, a citizen of the county and state aforesaid, being of sound mind, but knowing the uncertainty of life, and being desirous of disposing of my worldly affairs for the best interest of my beloved family do make and direct the following disposition of my worldly matters.

Item first - I commit my body to the grave, my soul to God Who gave it: I will and bequeath unto my beloved wife, Ann Love, all that portion of my plantation lying west of what is known as Zeigler's mill creek and that portion of my plantation known as the "Kitchen's" field, together with the dwelling house and other out-houses, to be possessed and enjoyed by her during the term of her natural life.

Item second, I do give and bequeath unto my beloved wife the following named negro slaves, viz: Lucy, Cain, William, Nelly, and Nancy, also the mares "Beck and Kit" and two mules, all my stock of cattle, hogs, sheep, and goats, three yoke of oxen, all my wagons, carts, and two buggies, plantation utensils of every description and household and kitchen furniture, to be used by her at her pleasure during her natural life and at her death to be disposed of as she may direct by will or otherwise.

Item third, Having already given my son, Edward, the lands or the greater portion of them on which he now lives and the negroes Frank and Ball, I give him in addition thereto negro Calvin.

Item Fourth, Having already given my daughter, Mary Jane Curry, the negroes Mary, Allen, and Nancy, I give her in addition thereto (possession to be given twelve months from this date) the negro man, Henry, now in the employment of John G. Smith.

Item 5th, Having already given unto my daughter, Margaret E. Shaw, the negroes, Will and Betty, I give her in addition thereto negro man Anderson.

Item 6, I give and bequeath unto my son, Archibald B. Love, the lands known as the Buie lands and an undivided half of all my land lying east of Zeigler's Mill Creek and an undivided half of eighty acres of pine land lying north of and adjoining lands owned by Elias Glisson, also the following named negroes, viz: Jim, Phillis, Edmond, and George; also the sorrel mare with a blaze face and a bay horse (Kit's colt).

Item 7. I give and bequeath unto my son, Alexander D. Love, the lands known as the "Sims Wood" place and an undivided half of all my land lying East of Zeigler's mill creek and an undivided half of eighty acres of pine land lying north of and adjoining lands belonging to Elias Glisson (said undivided lands to be equally divided between my said son, Archibald B. and Alexander D. if they cannot mutually agree between themselves then they are to select two disinterested persons to divide the lands between them) also the following negroes to said Alexander D.- John, Sam, Nancy's son, and Owen. also bay pony call Fox and Sorrel colt.

Item 8th, I give and bequeath unto my son John J. R. Love, all that portion of my lands lying on the south side of Attapulcus creek and adjoining the lands of John J. Colson and after the death of my beloved wife, Ann Love, I give and bequeath unto my said son, John J. R. all the lands and apurtenances herein conveyed to my said wife during her natural life. I also give my said son, John J. R. the following slaves, viz: Alfred, Matt, George, and Allen and the mare Fann.

Item 9th. I give and bequeath unto my daughter Barbara Ann Love the following named slave, viz: Jerry and his wife, Martha and two children Frank and Mary Polly and Melia and their future increase; also a bay horse called Salter and a new buggy to her and the heirs of her body.

Item 10. It is my will and desire that my beloved wife, Ann Love, do retain all my corn and provision crops now on hand or so much thereof as may be required for the use of the plantation for the present year- and the balance of the crops, together with the cotton crop now on hand to be sold by her and the proceeds of said sale to be applied first to the payment of all my just debts, second to the payment of my son, John J. R. Love the sum of sixteen hundred dollars, this to be in addition to what I have already given him and the residue of said proceeds together with all notes, choses in action or other personalities not herein before specially bequeathed to be disposed of by her as she in her as she in her discretion may determine.

Item 11. 7. Jean (called Jane) (Edward 2, Alexander 1) was born in North Carolina, probably Wayne County, July 22, 1797, and married Archibald Curry Smith on Sunday evening, Dec.
21, 1817- in Telfair County, Georgia. Archibald Curry
Smith, the son of John and Margaret Smith, was born June 18, 1797, also probably in North Carolina, since a large group of pioneers from North Carolina stopped in Telfair County, Georgia on their way to Florida. He was one of the first to settle in Gadsden County, about 1822, having his Indian Agency on the plantation now owned by Carl Spooner, it is on the old road between Quincy and Gretna.

Jane died Oct. 22, 1854 and Archibald died Jan. 21, 1855 and they are buried on the Edward Love plantation, owned in 1941 by C. R. Shaw. Some of their children are buried on the Earclow plantation, owned in 1941 by Carl Spooner.

Columbus, Ga. while her husband was absent in the Confederate Army.

g. Alexander (called Sandy) (Edward 2, Alexander I), son of Edward and Elizabeth Curry Love, was born Jan. 24, 1800, in North Carolina, probably in Wayne County since his mother died there either at that time or soon after. His father being a widower and being absent from home a great deal, the grandfather, Alexander, cared for him and he spoke only Gaelic until quite a lad. His father married again when he was three years old and that second wife died, so before he was ten years old his father had married again a third time. They moved from North Carolina to Telfair County and lived there until about 1822-24.

When Alexander (8) was twenty-two he married Isobel McRae and their first child was born in Telfair County. With this baby and their stock they started out for Florida, having been advised by their brother-in-law, Archibald Smith (7) that the land was fertile and the climate good. They came through unbroken forest a great deal of the way, by the aid of a compass, and at one part of the journey they did not see a white man for over a hundred miles. They crossed the Florida line Feb. 5, 1823, a month before Florida was admitted as a territory to the United States. Daniel Love (6) came with them and they settled in Gadsden County, a few miles north west of Quincy. Alexander (8) lived, died, and is buried on a plantation about five miles west of Quincy in the neighborhood now called Douglass City.

When the third Mrs. Edward Love, nee Fletcher, (stepmother of Alexander (8), died, her two step-sons, (and probably her grandson, John (5)), went back to Telfair County to settle the estate. The records show that John Love sold some land, including a ferry in 1829, it was probably at this time.

Alexander (8) was an active deacon and elder and a fine citizen. His first wife, Isobel McRae, was born Aug. 16, 1801 and died Oct. 14, 1842; and Alexander (8) married, second, Christine McRae, in 1847, but they had no children. Alexander (8) died Feb. 23, 1877 in Gadsden County, Florida.

Extract from letter from Charles Alexander Edgerton to his sister, (Bessie Edgerton Patterson. (Son and daughter of Jean Catherine (37).)

Cassadaga, (Ala.), Nov. 12, 1928.

Our great-great-grandfather on mother's side of the house was named Alexander Love. He settled in North Carolina with his son, named Edward, and our grandfather, whom you know, was named Alexander Love after his grandfather. Our great-grandfather, Edward Love, was married twice, and perhaps, three times. There were two sets of children.

Grand-pa was the youngest of the first set. Our great-great-grandfather was a widower and lived with his son Edward. Being a widower also and away from home most of the time on business, his father stayed at home and cared for the children. I have heard Grand-pa say that he was father and mother to him up to the time that he was eleven years of age and he only spoke the Gaelic language so he could not speak any English until after he was eleven years old.

Judge Love (Uncle Edward) was named Edward Curry after his grandpa, Edward Curry. Grandpa's father sent the oldest child, Uncle John Love, back to Scotland to his kin-people in Edinburgh, Scotland and they educated him. He had a very fine education and he taught the other children.

Grandpa, being the youngest of that set did not get to go but a short while, but he was the smartest one of the whole.

Ned Love asked me what I knew about the family and I was telling about Grandpa and how smart he was- witty- kept everyone laughing without even trying- just natural with him. He (Ned) said his father said that Grandpa was an exceptionally bright man and would have made a mark in the world if he had had a chance.

Uncle John was a highly educated man. Grandpa said in the early days of Florida the Governor frequently sent for him to go to Tallahassee to help with the affairs of state. (He was a member of the Provincial Congress). While Uncle John was sent back to Scotland and the Loves there educated him, he, in turn, sent Cousin Sam back there for the Loves to educate him, but said Loves did not recognize him, he had gotten too far off, and he had to work his way back on a vessel. He saw a good deal of the world, as the vessel touched at a lot of foreign ports. He finally landed at home and studied law and was considered a very able lawyer.

Our grand-mother on our mother's side was a McRae and Scotch.

The Loves moved from North Carolina to the Oakmulgee River in Georgia and stayed there quite a while and a good many of them died there. I saw a man in South Florida who said his home was right near the old Love settlement and that there were a good many tombstones there with the Love name on them.

When I was about seventeen or eighteen years old Aunt Lizzie came to Grandpa's place. She had an ad that she had clipped from a newspaper which had been put in by a Philadelphia lawyer. He wanted to trace the descendants of Alexander Love and Mary Moore Love who settled on Browning Creek, North Carolina. Said Mary Moore, Alexander's wife was Scotch-Irish and connected with the nobility of England or Scotland, I am not sure which.

Said it would be of importance for the descendants to trace descent. Aunt Lizzie said she wrote to him but could give no direct information as she could not tell if they were the same family of Loves or not. She knew our great-great-grand-father was named Alexander Love but none of the family ever heard Grandpa mention his grandmother. She must have died before he was born as he often mentioned his grandfather but always spoke of him as a widower. Mother said she had heard Grandpa say his father had lost a very valuable Bible running from the Indians, that he prized very highly. I have heard Mother say that she regretted very much she hadn't asked him more about his people.

Obituary of Mr. Alexander Love

from the

Quincy Presbyterian Church Minutes.

"The late Alexander Love, our co-laborer in the Session of the Presbyterian Church, was born in Robeson County in North Carolina January 24th, 1800 and departed this life at his late residence February 23rd, 1877, aged seventy-seven years and two months.

When the church was organized in 1838 his name was recorded with the first members. In September 1845 he was elected the first deacon in the church and officiated acceptably until the death of Daniel Love, an older brother, when he was elected an elder to fill the vacancy. In this office he labored faithfully until his own death. Our brother was not a showy member but ever faithful and vigilant, always ready for duty as an elder as he had been in the office of deacon. It was the privilege of the writer to have been a great deal with him in the discharge of duties pertaining to the office, especially in the weekly prayer meetings, not only in the church but in the several districts into which the church was divided and always enjoyed the privilege.

We are sure that it is not straining too much to say that he was ever the consistent Christian in deeds of charity so far as means justified, as well as in every other department of his useful and exemplary life. Such a Christian was not taken by surprise when the Saviour called, he asked those around him, very shortly before he breathed his last, to sing the beautiful hymn, "Jesus, Lover of My Soul" and while singing his last breath was spent in praising that loving Saviour. May we all as a Session and also the members of his immediate family follow his example.

By order of the Session.

John M. W. Davidson, Clerk.

19. Mary Jane (Daniel 6, Edward 2, Alexander 1), was born Aug. 26, 1827, and married, Oct. 23, 1845, Duncan Curry, who was born in Telfair County, Georgia, March 6, 1818. They lived across the Georgia line, the location being called Curry Corners, now Climax, Georgia. They raised a fine family and for a number of years were members of the Quincy Presbyterian Church, Duncan being an elder. There was no railroad, and very poor roads, so they rode horseback the thirty miles, with their children on behind them. Communion services continued from Friday night service through Sunday, so it was a family reunion as well as an important Church Sacrament.

From the Minutes of Session of the Quincy Church
the following is copied:-

"Sept. 13, 1845. Mr. Duncan Curry, formerly a ruling elder in the Presbyterian Church in Telfair County, Georgia, which church has been dissolved several years since, by the removal of the pastor, and most of the members, applied for admission into this church and was received." Also an entry showing the transfer of M. H. Martin, M.D., Mrs. S. J. Martin, Mrs. Sarah Frances Bruton, Duncan Curry and wife, Mrs. Jane E. Curry, Arch. Curry & wife, Mrs. Caro J. Curry to form Curry's Church (Now Climax Presbyterian Church), on Feb. 10, 1852.

Mary Jane (19) died Aug. 12, 1899 and Duncan died April 26, 1886.

- 21-Archibald Buie (Daniel 6, Edward 2, Alexander 1) was born Oct. 31, 1832 and married Rebecca Jeannette Hollaxon. They lived north of Quincy on the old Bainbridge Road (out Adams Street).

Archibald (21) was a member of the "Young Guard", a military company organized at Quincy, Florida, before the breaking out of the Civil War, and in the 1st. Fla. Infantry saw service in and around Pensacola, returning home to enlist in Co. B, 8th Fla. Regiment under Capt. R.A. Waller. Archibald (21) enlisted May 10, 1862 in the 8th Infantry, he was captured at Gettysburg July 3, 1863 and imprisoned in Fort Delaware until the close of the war. Conditions in Fort Delaware were so bad that the prisoners had to eat rats and at times they marched in the prison all night to keep from freezing to death. Archibald was too ill to make his escape when the opportunity offered.

In 1881 he was appointed by Gov. Wm. D. Bloxham as one of the first members of the Board of Education for the West Florida Seminary (now the Florida State College for Women at Tallahassee). He died April 2, 1883 and his wife died April 30th, 1914. They are buried in the Philadelphia Church Cemetery, four miles north of Quincy.

23. John Jay Rice (Daniel 6, Edward 2, Alexander 1) was born Aug. 1, 1839. He was named for the Rev. John Jay Rice, (the first regularly ordained and installed minister in the Presbyterian Church of Quincy, to whom a memorial in marble is set in the wall of the church, it having been removed from the front of the pulpit in the former church which stood on that same lot).

John Jay Rice (23) enlisted in the 1st. Fla. Infantry April 5, 1861 and re-enlisted April 6, 1862 in Co. B. 8th Infantry, was promoted to Sergeant, was in numerous battles until captured at Gettysburg, when he was imprisoned in Fort Delaware, where his courage was outstanding and his selfsacrifice noteworthy. He would make music all night and keep the prisoners marching to it, to keep them from freezing, and he refused several opportunities to escape so that he might continue to administer to the needs of his brother, Archibald, who was too ill to try to escape.

He was first a deacon and then an elder in the Quincy Presbyterian Church.

He married Nov. 12, 1868, Sarah Warren Scarborough who was born Aug. 17, 1848, and was one of four daughters of Martha Lucinda Smith Scarborough, nee Dorephora married daughter of the Love family, and the others being Fina, Infant of Edward (18), Alexander Love Wilson, (19) and Edward Carrist (49) of Martha Lucinda Scarborough, South, another of Mrs. John Jay Rice's daughters, 1862 in the wife of Captain, Scarborough who was the son of Ichabod, Scarborough and his wife, Sarah Warren. This Sarah Warren was the daughter of Captain Josiah Warren, Sr., of North Carolina and his wife, Nancy Doty. Martha Lucinda Davis came to Gadsden County by wagon train in 1819.

John Jay Rice (23) and family lived on Jefferson Street, their home later being converted into a hotel, the Love House, which Mrs. J. J. R. Love conducted after she became a widow. John Jay Rice (23) died on Christmas Day, in 1830.

Mrs. John Rice Love's grandfather was named Gambel and he was the first white male child born on the site of Philadelphia. The governor had offered a grant of land to the first white male child born there and hearing of this after they had moved to Virginia they sent back their proofs of claim, but the lawyer who carried them, his horse, and the papers all disappeared on the way, probably destroyed by Indians.

Mrs. John Jay Rice died Nov. 14, 1939 and she and her husband are buried in the Philadelphia Church cemetery north of Quincy.

OBITUARY OF JOHN JAY RICE LOVE.
from the Minutes of the Quincy Presbyterian Church.

A good man has fallen and we are again reminded of the solemn and impressive word, "In the midst of life we are in death".

John Jay Rice Love was born in Gadsden County, Florida and died at his home in the town of Quincy on the 25th of December, 1900, in the 41st year of his age. The survivors came to him in the vigor of his manhood and closed an active and useful life.

He was of Scotch lineage and a son of the late Daniel Love, who was for many years an elder of the Quincy Presbyterian Church. Reared by pious parents he illustrated the truth of that Scripture which tells us, "Train up a child in the way he should go and when he is old he will not depart from it."

About the time that he attained his majority he made a profession of his faith in the Lord Jesus Christ and united himself with the church of his fathers, and to the end of his life his walk and conversation were constant with his profession.

On the second day of June, 1872, he was made a deacon of the Quincy Church and preeminently faithful was he in the discharge of the duties of that office. His efficient management of the temporal affairs of the church is gratefully remembered by all his surviving brethren.

In the month of December, 1879, he was elected to the office of elder and on the 22nd day of February, following was ordained, but he was not permitted to serve his Master long in that capacity, for he was called in less than a year after his ordination to serve Him, we trust, in the church above.

He was liberal and generous in his contributions for the support of the Gospel and earnestly did he labor in word and deed for the advancement of the prosperity of Zion, so much did he love the services of the sanctuary that seldom was his seat vacant on the days of worship.

As a citizen he was upright and public spirited and universally esteemed. At the time of his death he was the mayor of Quincy, to which office he was three times elected. His demise is not only a great loss to the church but also to the entire community in which he lived.

"Be ye also ready for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of man cometh."

(Rev. N. P. Quarterman and Elder R. H. K. Davidson were appointed by the Session to write the above.)

27. John Gadsden Smith (John 7, Edward 2, Alexander 1), is said to be the first white child born in Gadsden County. He was born Sept. 8, 1822 at the Indian Agency, which was on the place where he is buried (owned by Carl Spooner in 1941). Hisasket is in the possession of Mrs. John Gadsden Smith Shephera (whose husband was named for him). He married Jan. 28, 1849, Mary Ann McDougald, who was born Dec. 4, 1822, and a copy of the entries in their family Bible follows entry #7, Joan. They had no children.

John Gadsden Smith (27) died Nov. 6, 1870.

28. Jane Munroe Smith (John-7, Edward 2, Alexander 1) was born June 5, 1824 and married Feb. 4, 1858, Frances Elizabeth Bradwell and they lived on the Archibald Smith farm on the old Stage Road, which goes out North Roberts Street.

Jane (28) was an elder in the Quincy Presbyterian Church and is one of the few members to have his obituary recorded in its minutes. He died Sept. 7, 1875.

Obituary of James M. Smith

from the

Minutes of Session of the

Quincy Presbyterian Church

James M. Smith departed this life at his residence in Gadsden County, Florida on the 7th day of September, 1873, in the fiftieth year of his age. Captain Smith was of Scotch Presbyterian descent and was born and reared in the county in which he died.

In early manhood he consecrated himself to the cause of the Master by public profession of religion and joined the Quincy Presbyterian Church. Not long after connecting himself with the church he was made a member of the Board of Deacons, the duties of which position he discharged faithfully.

In the month of May, 1872, he was chosen by his brethren to the eldership and filled office in a very acceptable manner until he was called, we trust, by the head of the church to a broader and more glorious field of usefulness.

We utter no exaggerated language when we say that in the death of Brother Smith there has passed away from us an upright and public spirited citizen; a loving and devoted father, a warm and generous friend, an earnest and liberal Christian. So sudden and violent was his last illness that he was unable to give his friends and loved ones any dying testimony of the strength and genuineness of his hope and faith, but from his walk and conversation while with us we can feel assured that he is now experiencing the joys of the redeemed in that land where the wicked cease from troubling and the weary are at rest.

Therefore resolved:-

1st. That in the death of Brother Smith the surviving members of this Session feel that a great and serious loss has befallen them as a Session, and also the Church which they represent, but they rejoice in the hope that what is their loss is their departed brother's everlasting gain.

2nd. That we bow in loving humble submission to the mysterious providence of God, who has removed from our midst a loving brother and will exclaim, in sincerity "Thy will be done". That by his removal from earthly scenes to the eternal world we are again reminded that "The time is short", and again hear the solemn warning, "Work while it is called today".

3rd. That deeply and sincerely we sympathize with the orphan daughter and other relatives of our deceased brother and commend them to the care and keeping of our heavenly Father, praying that in Him they may find an all-sufficient Comforter.

EDWARD C. LOVE

(copied from "Souvenir Sketches - - Georgia and Florida" -- Page 528 Published in 1889 by F. A. Battey & Co. Chicago. "Containing Biographical Sketches of the Representative Public, and many Early Settled Families in These States.")

Judge Edward C. Love, attorney at law, Quincy, Florida, December 16, 1829. His parents were Alexander and Isabella (McRae) Love, the former of whom was born in North Carolina in 1800, moved to Florida in 1824, and there died in 1877.

Alexander Love was the son of Edward Love of Scotland, and represented Gadsden County in the State Legislature one term. The mother of the subject is the daughter of Philip McRae, also of Scotch extraction. She was the mother of four living children, viz: Edward C., Elizabeth A., wife of Isaac Wilson; Kane C., wife of Charles M. Edgerton; Mary A., wife of E. M. Fraleigh.

Edward C. read law with John Erskine, and was admitted to the bar in 1852. The various positions Judge Love has held speak for his rare ability as an attorney. In 1852 he was elected probate judge of Gadsden County. He served as such twelve years, and then as criminal judge for two years. In 1860 he was elected a member of the constitutional convention of Florida. He has served continuously as chairman of the Democratic executive committee of the first congressional district since 1876. In 1883 he was elected State's attorney for the second judicial district of Florida and still holds that position. In 1885 he was again elected a member of the constitutional convention and assisted in forming the present constitution. In 1871 Judge Love married Mary D. G. Smith, daughter of Daniel G. Smith. Their union was blessed by the birth of four children: Edward C., James D., William G., and Herbert A.

August 7, 1883, Mrs. Love died, a member of the Presbyterian Church. Judge Love is a Royal Arch Mason and also a member of the Presbyterian Church.
